

Travel and Hotel Information

To arrive in Krefeld, the nearest airport is Düsseldorf (DUS). It serves both international and intercontinental flights.

Düsseldorf airport is situated about 25 km from Krefeld. To arrive there you can take local and regional trains from the airport to Düsseldorf Main Station (Hauptbahnhof) and then change to a regional train to Krefeld. The journey will take about 1.5 hours; we are sorry to say that it is not very convenient.

We therefore recommend that you contact the Krefeld taxi company “Die freundlichen Elche” (The friendly elks – indeed!) in advance and ask for a taxi to pick you up at Düsseldorf airport. They charge ca. 35 € for the ride to Krefeld, for a group of up to four persons.
